

Cincinnati Asian Art Society

Since 1976, interested collectors and enthusiastic admirers of Asian art have joined the Cincinnati Asian Art Society (CAAS). CAAS provides for the exchange of ideas among people interested in both collecting and appreciating Asian art, focusing on Chinese, Japanese, Korean, South Asian and Southeast Asian art in all media. We have always worked with and supported the Curator of Asian Art at the Cincinnati Art Museum and now the Curator of Asian Art, Islamic Art and Antiquities.

CAAS sponsors a variety of activities such as private tours of collections in Cincinnati; tours of local museum exhibitions led by curators wherever possible; and lectures by scholars and curators. There are also occasional trips to museums, galleries, or private collections in the surrounding region. A number of our programs are free and open to the public to help educate our community about the fascinating diversity of Asian art.

Current officers are: Helen Rindsberg, president; Barbara Ramusack, vice-president; Margaret Rhein, secretary; and Stuart Golder, treasurer. This year's program committee was the CAAS officers, Hou-mei Sung and Ainsley Cameron, Curators at CAM and five interested members.

Membership dues provide for routine administrative expenses, refreshments at receptions, modest stipends for lecturers, and support for the Asian Art Department at the Cincinnati Art Museum. All dues are fully tax deductible. Please return this form and your dues to our treasurer at the address below.
