Cincinnati Asian Art Society

Schedule of Winter and Spring Programs for 2018

Public Spectacles, Personal Pleasures

Sunday January 21, 2018 Public/Members Only: Cincinnati Art Museum
1:00 PM Members Only: Viewing of Weisman Collection prints in the Castellini Room
2:00 PM Public Program: 5th/3rd Lecture Hall, reception at 3:00 PM
Kristin Spangenberg, Curator of Prints, will discuss selected prints, the Weismans as collectors and how their collections enhance the Art Museum's holdings.

Show And Tell

Sunday February 25, 2018 Members Only
2:00 PM at Bellwood Apartments at Ohio Living Llanfair in College Hill
Bring your treasures to display and teach us what attracted you to them. This is always a favorite of CAAS members. Paintings, ceramics, textiles, prints, small sculptures, what artworks and their stories will you share? Don't have an artwork? Join us to learn – we all love to share the fascinating facts about our artworks.

The Art of Malaysian Cooking

Saturday March 24, 2018 Members Only
11:30 AM for lunch at Dr. Abhijit and Julie Desai's home
Join us for our 6th Art of Asian Cooking program. Malaysia was the ancient crossroads of the spice trade. Chef Angie Pang will demonstrate how to cook Malaysian dishes that blend the flavors of Malaysia, India, China, and Indonesia. After watching her magic we'll feast on savory, spicy and sweet creations. Cost: $25 each

Terracotta Army: Legacy of the First Emperor of China

Sunday April 22, 2018 Members Only
2:00 PM at the Cincinnati Art Museum, 3:00 PM Reception
Hou-mei Sung, Curator of Asian Art, will lead our private tour of highlights of the exhibit: the terracotta warriors, arms and armor, ritual vessels, works in gold and silver, jade ornaments, precious jewelry and ceramics, all drawn from art museums and archeological institutions in Shaanxi Province, China.

Terracotta Army: Legacy of the First Emperor of China
Fourth Annual Asian Art Lecture

Sunday May 6, 2018 Public Program
2:00 PM at the Cincinnati Art Museum, 3:00 PM Reception
Li Jian, Curator of Asian Art at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts and Hou-mei Sung, Curator of Asian Art at CAM, co-curators of the exhibit, will discuss the birth of the Qin Empire and cultural diversity of ancient China, the First Emperor, and the artworks that the represent history, myths and burials of ancient China.