

Cincinnati Asian Art Society

Schedule of Programs for 2017-2018

Hiroshige: Famous Views in the 60 Odd Provinces

Sunday September 17, 2017

Members Only

12:00 PM Lunch at Woodstock Country Club, 2:00 PM Tour at the Indianapolis Museum of Art

We'll travel to Indianapolis for a very special lunch with members of the Asian Art Society of Indianapolis.

We'll have a private docent-led tour of the special woodblock print exhibit of renowned Japanese artist

Utagawa Hiroshige. Our docent is a member of AASI. Tour: $14 and Lunch: $22

Cincinnati and South Asia: Building the Museum Collection

Sunday October 8, 2017

Public Program

2:00 PM at the Cincinnati Art Museum, reception at 3:00 PM

Dr. Ainsley M. Cameron, newly appointed Curator of South Asian Art, Islamic Art, and Antiquities, will reveal the history of collecting and display of South Asian art in Cincinnati. By highlighting instrumental figures and acquisitions in the development of the collection, she will explore recent discoveries in storage, and discuss her strategic intentions for the future of the department.

Enameling in China and Japan

Sunday November 5, 2017

Public Program

2:00 – 4:00 PM at Thompson Enameling Bellevue, KY

We'll start with an illustrated talk about the highlights of the Asian enameling art in the CAM Collection. Josy Trageser will then demonstrate the art of enameling and we'll finish with a tour of the W. W. Carpenter

Enameling Museum led by Tom Ellis and refreshments. Cost: $10 donation to the Enameling Museum

Public Spectacles, Personal Pleasures

Sunday January 21, 2018

Public/Members Only: Cincinnati Art Museum

1:00 PM Members Only: Viewing of Weisman Collection prints in the Castellini Room

2:00 PM Public Program: 5th/3rd Lecture Hall, reception at 3:00 PM

Kristin Spangenberg, Curator of Prints, will discuss selected prints, the Weismans as collectors and how their collections enhance the Art Museum's holdings.

Show And Tell

February 2018 Date To Be Announced

Members Only

2:00 PM at Bellwood Apartments at Ohio Living Llanfair in College Hill

Bring your treasures to display and teach us what attracted you to them. This is always a favorite of CAAS members.

Paintings, ceramics, textiles, prints, small sculptures, what artworks and their stories will you share? Don't have an artwork? Join us to learn – we all love to share the fascinating facts about our artworks.

The Art of Malaysian Cooking

March 2018 Date To Be Announced

Members Only

12 PM for lunch at Dr. Abhijit and Julie Desai's home

Join us for our 6th Art of Asian Cooking program. Malaysia was the ancient crossroads of the spice trade. Angie Pang will demonstrate how to cook Malaysian dishes that blend the flavors of Malaysia, India, China, and Indonesia. After watching her magic we'll feast on savory, spicy and sweet creations. Cost: $25

Terracotta Army: Legacy of the First Emperor of China

Sunday April 22, 2018

Members Only

2:00 PM at the Cincinnati Art Museum, 3:00 PM Reception

Hou-mei Sung, Curator of Asian Art, will lead our private tour of highlights of the exhibit: the terracotta warriors, arms and armor, ritual vessels, works in gold and silver, jade ornaments, precious jewelry and ceramics, all drawn from art museums and archeological institutions in Shaanxi Province, China.

Terracotta Army: Legacy of the First Emperor of China

Fourth Annual Asian Art Lecture

Sunday May 6, 2018

Public Program

2:00 PM at the Cincinnati Art Museum, 3:00 PM Reception

Li Jian, Curator of Asian Art at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts and Hou-mei Sung, Curator of Asian Art at

CAM, co-curators of the exhibit, will discuss the birth of the Qin Empire and cultural diversity of ancient China, the First Emperor, and the artworks that they represent history, myths and burials of ancient China.